MCLAGAN

Methodology

- McLagan assembled the compensation data from our 2023 Investment Management Compensation Survey Suite.
- The data was assembled from CaISTRS' board-approved policy comparator groups for executive and investment positions:
- Executive Positions: a weighted average made up of $67 \%$ leading US public funds and $33 \%$ broad private-sector investment management organizations.
- Investment Positions: "a blend of large and complex institutional investors - including top US and Canadian funds, corporate plan sponsors, and private sector investment management firms." Details of this peer group can be found in the Appendix including additional information on which leading institutional investors and mid-sized asset managers (e.g., AUM $100B to $500B) are included.
- CaISTRS' pay methodology is defined within the Administrative Procedures for the Teacher's Retirement Board's Compensation Philosophy:
- Cash compensation opportunities will be targeted at the 50th percentile (median) of the TRB-approved comparator groups. By targeting pay opportunities to these comparator groups, CalSTRS should be able to attract and retain the high-caliber employees required to achieve the System's business and investment objectives.
